

TV1039E ANALOGIES

- How many choices are there on an analogy question on an SAT test?
a. 5 b. 2 c. 3
- What is the method used to help answer the SAT question for a pair of words?
a. coding b. marriage c. opposites
- In order for two words to fit together what does one word have to have in common with the other?
a. be part of the other word b. nothing c. in the others definition
- What is one of the six main groups that common marriage words fall in?
a. noun b. verb c. use
- Which of the examples is a group?
a. A dollar is 100 pennies b. A pack is a group of dog's c. There are many stars in the sky
- What is step 3 in checking an analogy?
a. rewrite your relationship sentence b. recheck your answer c. read the answers carefully
- What occurs when you cannot define one word by using the other word?
a. bad marriage b. axe it c. improper grammar
- What is step 6 in breaking down analogies?
a. make a sentence b. remove the verb c. avoid traps
- On difficult problems what should you avoid?
a. hard words b. words that are similar to words in the stem pair c. words that end in y
- What should you always be aware of while taking the SAT?
a. what day it is b. difficulty of the question c. who is giving the test
- What is one of the methods of guessing?
a. cause & effect b. together-apart c. $a + b = c$

English Division
800-583-6454

Answer Key

- | | |
|-------|-------|
| 1. a | 2. b |
| 3. c | 4. c |
| 5. b | 6. a |
| 7. a | 8. c |
| 9. b | 10. b |
| 11. b | |

FOLD ON LINE,
THEN DUPLICATE